Order

Plaintiff's proposed disposition of the want-of-jurisdiction motion

Before the Honourable Justice [name or blank] in chambers

The motion is to be heard on November 12, 2026, at the time stated in the Court notice, at The Law Courts, 1815 Upper Water Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia B3J 1S7.

On the motion of Jon Cameron and Alan Warkentin to dismiss the action for want of jurisdiction, and after hearing the parties and reviewing the filed record, the following is ordered. This draft contains alternatives; select and retain only the disposition made by the Court:

1. OPTION A - If the Court decides territorial competence: the motion under Rule 4.07 is dismissed because the Court has territorial competence under section 4 of the Court Jurisdiction and Proceedings Transfer Act.

2. OPTION A - If a separate section 12 request is before the Court and the Court has territorial competence: the request to decline jurisdiction in favour of British Columbia is dismissed.

3. OR, OPTION B - If the Court concludes that the current operative pleading does not include the distinct Nova Scotia events relied on by the Plaintiff: the motion is adjourned to a date set by the Court, not dismissed, to allow the Plaintiff to bring a properly noticed motion for any required amendment under Rule 83. No determination is made on the merits, limitation period, or admissibility of a proposed amendment.

4. The parties shall file and deliver the complete current Nova Scotia pleadings and orders, and the relevant pleadings and final orders from the British Columbia proceeding, by [date set by the Court], or as otherwise directed.

5. If Option B is selected, the Plaintiff shall serve any proposed amended pleading and supporting material by [date set by the Court]. The defendants may respond within the time set by the Court.

6. Costs are reserved. Such further directions as are necessary are reserved.

DATED at Halifax, Nova Scotia, this ____ day of _____, 2026.
