Supplementary Affidavit of Robert Colin Urquhart

Regarding incomplete delivery of court documents

I, Robert Colin Urquhart, of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, Contract Maintenance, make oath/affirm and give evidence as follows:

1. I am the Plaintiff in this proceeding.

2. I make this supplementary affidavit about court papers I received by Canada Post from John Cameron.

3. I understood the papers to relate to the British Columbia claim and the matter referred to as the "Westosha case."

4. The package contained four pages of a letter addressed to a justice. I had not received those pages before the Canada Post package arrived.

5. The package also contained two pages of a response to claim. The response indicated that it was three pages long, but I received only two pages and did not receive the third page.

6. The papers referred to another submission or document that I did not receive.

7. I did not receive a copy of an order referred to in the papers.

8. I did not receive the communication involving the registrar that I understood was connected with these court materials.

9. The court-document set appeared to include a cover page, but I did not receive that cover page.

10. I did not receive all of the other materials I understood to be associated with the filings, including material I associate with my work with Alex and others.

11. Because I did not have the complete set of documents, I could not review the missing pages and materials when considering the court record.

12. I am concerned that the incomplete delivery may leave the impression that I am ill-prepared or unable to manage the case independently, and may reflect negatively on my character, although I did not receive the materials described above.

13. I make this affidavit to record the documents I received, the documents I did not receive, and the effect of the missing materials on my ability to review the record.
